

Trips for Knitters Responsibility/Disclaimer Statement

Trips for Knitters advises that all participants protect their trip investment by purchasing an accredited travel insurance protection plan that will cover trip interruption and trip cancellation.

Trips for Knitters is not responsible for any baggage or personal effects of any individual participating in the trips arranged by Trips for Knitters. Individual travelers are responsible for purchasing a travel insurance policy that will cover some of the expenses associated with the loss of luggage or personal effects.

Trips for Knitters encourages participants to ensure they have adequate medical insurance for the period of travel, and if outside the US, that participants purchase insurance to cover a medical incident in an international setting, including medical evacuation. Trips for Knitters is not responsible for procuring or providing medical care and in no way responsible for the cost of such care and associated expenses such as medications or medical supplies.

It is recommended that any participant with physical limitations or a medical condition that may predispose them to needing assistance as a result of the stress of travel bring a travel companion.

Trips for Knitters, sub-contractors, or rental homeowners assume no responsibility or liability for any claim of damages, expenses, injury, delay, inconvenience, loss or damage to person or property, or additional costs resulting directly or indirectly from causes that include, but are not limited to, acts of government, fire, theft, delays, cancellations, weather, vehicle traffic, strikes, illness or accident incurred in any manner including transportation by plane, bus, car, van, taxi, train, boat, or other conveyance.

Trips for Knitters reserves the right to cancel any trip when a minimum number of participants is not met, when a natural or other disaster indicates travel is not safe, or when Trips for Knitters deems that a trip cannot take place due to unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances at Trips for Knitters. In the event of a cancellation, participants will be provided sufficient documentation to pursue claims with travel insurance carriers. Reimbursement may be available from Trips for Knitters, depending on the specific circumstances.
